Completion of New Building of Subsidiaries in Thailand

NITTO KOHKI (THAILAND) CO., LTD. (henceforth, NKT) and NITTO KOHKI COUPLING (THAILAND) CO., LTD. ((henceforth, NKCT), the NITTO KOHKI's fully owned manufacturing subsidiaries in Thailand, completed a new factory building in its site and started operation in December 2012.

NKT and NKCT, located in Ayutthaya Pref. Rojana Industrial Complex, suffered flood damage, were rebuilding factory while alternative productions were operated in Thailand and Japan.

The new building is two-story and built on 2 meter raised ground as a safety measure from floods.

Both of NKT and NKCT operate in the same building.
